Regulations for the media accreditation at the 23th International Festival of Arts «Slavianski Bazaar in Vitebsk»

These accreditation regulations have been drafted to make provisions for the information support of the 23th International Art Festival «Slavianski Bazaar in Vitebsk» (hereinafter referred to as Festival) due to be held from 10 to 14 July 2014.

The accreditation of foreign media at the Festival will be carried out by the Belarus Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in keeping with the Regulations for the Accreditation of Foreign Journalists in Belarus enacted by Bylaw of the Belarus Council of Ministers No. 2015 dated 25.12.2008.

The following documents are required for temporary accreditation:

- A written request signed by a mass media chief for accreditation of a journalist wishing to work in Belarus. The request should indicate first and family names, citizenship, date of birth, passport number, issue and expiration date, desired duration of accreditation, diplomatic mission where a journalist intends to receive an entry visa, purposes of the visit.
- Standard application form completed personally by a journalist to be accredited.
- Two photos of a journalist to be accredited (3x4 cm).

You may send scanned copies of the abovementioned documents in electronic format (.pdf files), and digital photos (.jpg files) by e-mail: press@mfa.gov.by.

The Belarus Foreign Ministry shall report a list of foreign journalists to the Ministry of Information for the accreditation at the Festival. The aggregate list of accredited journalists from the Belarusian and foreign media shall be formed by the Ministry of Information. The Ministry of Information shall send an approved list of accredited journalists from the Belarusian and foreign media to the Directorate of the International Art Festival «Slavianski Bazaar in Vitebsk».

The accreditation of Belarusian and foreign media at the Festival events attended by the Belarus President will be carried out by the Presidential press service.
